NEW SPORT . . . Vallerie Daniels bends to the first task in learning archery as she learns to brace and string her bow.

THAT'S WRONG . . . Wrong stance, wrong draw, throw Vallerie off of balance as she aims her first arrow unaided.

HIT YOUR CHIN . . . Doris Avls, archery instructor, shows a chastened and attentive Vallerie how to plant both feet on the ground and draw to her chin.

Big Time Wrestling Comes to Torrance

Some of the best names in big time wrestling have been promised the Torrance Optimist Club for the opening night card of professional grunt and groaners who will appear here on March 2, according to Tweed Jolly, chairman of the wrestling committee.

Special arrangements between the city and the Optimists have been completed that will bring a wrestling show to the Civic Auditorium every other Thursday.

Cecil Payne, well-known wrestling referee, has told the local club that some of the best names in the game will be booked for the first show—a March of Dimes benefit, two weeks from tonight.

Profits from subsequent shows will be used by the Optimist Club to support their Boys Work Program and to aid such other youth groups as the YMCA, Kiwanis Kids' Day and similar youth activities.

Through the efforts of Arthur Sues, a club member and Superintendent of Transportation for the Todd Shipbuilding Company, a ring has been donated by the harbor boat firm.

Seats to accommodate 1200 fans will be set up for the semi-monthly bouts. Ringside seats will go for $1.50, others at $1.

The Optimists have obtained a regular business license from the City of Torrance and have agreed to pay $45 rent on the auditorium for each night of wrestling.

Serving on the wrestling committee of the local service club are Jolly Sues, Doris Woolley and Charles "Shorty" Darrow.

Don Hyde Named As Director Of Alondra Park

Don Hyde, industrial relations manager for Columbia Steel, was named to the temporary board of directors of Alondra Park Country Club at an organizational meeting of the club held at El Camino College this week.

Temporary president of the club is Burt Brooks, past president of the Inglewood Golf Club. The temporary officers will serve until a constitution and by-laws have been adopted when a permanent group of officers will be chosen.

Heads-Up Hoopster

Six feet two inches tall and a dead shot, Eugene Beltrame gives his opponents on other Sixth Army teams plenty of trouble. Gene gets a lot of fun out of Army athletics and in addition he's saving money that will help put him through Muhlenberg college.

With his Army-learned skill of X-Ray technician, Gene could step into a well-paid civilian job, but he figures that college education will be worth more in the long run.

Gene says, "A young fellow who enjoys sports and also wants to learn a trade or continue his education gets his best chance in the Army." For full information on what the Army offers you, visit your local Recruiting Office. In Torrance go to U. S. Post Office.

Don Merrill Tops League With 25 Point High Game

BULLETIN

Columbia Steel forfeited to the Harbor Docs last night, automatically making the Harbor Docs champion of the "Blue" Wednesday Division in the City Basketball League.

Walleria sewed up the number two position in the "Blue" Wednesday division in the City Basketball League last week when they trounced hard fighting Columbia Steel, 33-28, breaking a three-way tie for second place between Walleria, Columbia Steel and Lovelady Hardware.

Division leading Harbor Docs took care of Lovelady with a 33-12 win, paced by Frank Bowman's 13 points.

Harbor Docs won the first round.

Whoever wins the second round will have to face Fenwick's, champs of both the first and second rounds in the Black Friday division to determine the city champions.

Special mention: this week goes to Don Merrill, Redondo left forward, who copped high place in the whole city basketball league with a 25 that included three baskets on five foul shots. This boosts his total in three games of the second round to 47 points, an average of almost 16 per game. He tallied an average of 10.2 points in the first round.
